REGISTER NOW!

One Participant: $3250
Two participants: $5800 (a $700 savings!)

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Build the skills and confidence to teach the three-day person-directed living course
- Learn adult-learning and facilitation strategies designed for small-house environments
- Practice leading sessions and receive supportive feedback from expert faculty

WHAT YOU'LL TAKE HOME:

- A complete Educator Toolkit (slides, handouts, videos, facilitator guide)
- A customizable training plan you can implement immediately
- Coaching-supported confidence to deliver high-impact, mission-aligned education
- NAB & Nursing CEUs included

THIS COURSE IS IDEAL IF:

- Your small-house organization is committed to deepening person-directed living
- You want consistent, values-based onboarding rooted in real home and autonomy
- You are building or expanding an internal bench of skilled trainers

A five-day train-the-trainer program for leaders in small-house-oriented settings who want to strengthen person-directed living and build internal training capacity.

Learn to teach the three-day person-directed living course, apply effective adult-learning strategies, and lead training that reflects autonomy, real home, and meaningful engagement. Hands-on facilitation, real-time coaching, and peer learning equip you to deliver consistent, values-driven onboarding across your community.
